

cocowire

NEWS | EVENTS | CULTURE

The picture was taken after a Palm Beach County (PBC) Caucus of Black Elected Officials meeting in South Bay. Those who are not elected officials are associate members. The date of the photo is unknown but is believed to be sometime in 2009-10.

Front Row, left to right

Commissioner Addie Greene, PBC Commission

Commissioner Allie Biggs, City of Pahokee

Commissioner Esther Berry, City of South Bay

Dr. Emma Banks, associate member, founder of Inlet Grove High charter school in Riviera Beach

Judge Edward Rodgers, associate member, PBC's first African-American prosecutor and jurist who died in October 2018

Articia Futch, associate member

Mildred Anderson, associate member

Mayor Thomas Masters, City of Riviera Beach

Michelle Andrewin, associate member

Back Row, left to right

Commissioner Gwendolyn Holly, City of Belle Glade

Bobby Powell, then-associate member, current state Senator

Commissioner Shirley W. Turner, City of South Bay

Commissioner William Grear, City of Belle Glade, and the first black City Commissioner and Mayor who died in 2006

Commissioner Janet Taylor, Hendry County Commission

Commissioner Diane Walker, City of Pahokee

Councilmember Peggy Cook, Town of Mangonia Park

Clifford Bridges, associate member who died in 2013

Councilmember Earlene Weston, City of Riviera Beach, who died in 2011

Commissioner Isaac 'Ike' Robinson, City of West Palm Beach

Arthur Anderson, PBC Supervisor of Elections (or, depending on picture date, Assistant Manager, City of South Bay)